Make this confession part of your daily routine

Image Development Confession

I am a young man (or Woman) created by God to be great and to do great things. My life is a gift from God and I will not waste it. I will not be controlled by fear, anger, drugs or greed. God has made me powerful and I will use my power to be a blessing and not a curse. I will be A friend and protector not a bully or a cheat. God has designed me to lead with love compassion and strength.

I will not be afraid of the unknown because God has given me insight, vision, resilience, talent, skills, abilities, and creativity for the tasks that I have been given assignment. I will respect God myself and others. And I will not spend my time blaming others for my circumstances. I empower myself by asking God to help me reach the destiny that he knows is best for me.

My thoughts are positive with high expectations and I am excited with all the possibility. Even when it's hard I will do the work necessary to change and grow. I will seek God for the answers, direction and inspiration I need, and Most of all, I believe that with God's help I am becoming the person He has created me to be Amen.

Any youth who will memorize and Recite This Confession by memory to Team Leader before the End of Fishing Trip Will Receive $20 cash

Code of Conduct

Please return this page with your child

Your child will be expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct at any Men's Community Action Resource (MCAR) sponsored event.

All adults will be viewed as team leaders. All adults are to be respected as supervisors (team leaders). We have the expectation that your child will cooperate with any reasonable request made.

Sportsmanship is important. Remember to be a good winner / loser. In all sporting events there is an expectation of good sportsmanship. To win or lose without excessive taunting, learn to forget and forgive.

No Fighting no cursing or swearing. Bulling, Hazing or Teasing is not permitted. Weapons of any kind are strictly forbidden

Dress Code: Although we have no formal dress code, we do request young men wear a belt suspenders, etc. so they can participate in our events without fear of unnecessary exposure. (No Sagging)

The Character of a (MCAR) Man: what we believe a Man should be

TRUSTWORTHY: A man tells the truth. He keeps his promises. Honesty is part of his code of conduct. People can depend on him.

LOYAL: A man is true to his family, leaders, friends, school, and nation.

HELPFUL: A man is concerned about other people. He does things willingly for others without pay or reward.

FRIENDLY: A man is a friend to all. He seeks to understand others. He respects those with ideas and customs other than his own.

COURTEOUS: A man is polite to everyone regardless of age or position. He knows good manners make it easier for people to get along together.

KIND: A man understands there is strength in being gentle. He treats others as he wants to be treated. He does not hurt or kill harmless things without reason.

OBEDIENT: A man follows the rules of his family, and school. He obeys the laws of his community and country. If he thinks these rules and laws are unfair, he tries to have them changed in an orderly manner rather than disobey them.

CHEERFUL: A man looks for the bright side of things. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way. He tries to make others happy.

THRIFTY: A man works to pay his way and to help others. He saves for unforeseen needs. He protects and conserves natural resources. He carefully uses time and property.

BRAVE: A man can face danger even if he is afraid. He has the courage to stand for what he thinks is right even if others laugh at or threaten him.

CLEAN: A man keeps his body and mind fit and clean. He goes around with those who believe in living by these same ideals. He helps keep his home and community clean.

REVERENT: A man is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others.

If at any time your child's conduct becomes disruptive to the point of being incorrigible, or totally unruly you will be contacted to come and pick-up your child.
